

Parents & Kids, Talking About Sex ©

Instructions:

- Put the teens in small teams (3-4 members).
- Have each team give themselves a name.
- Put the team names on a board to keep score.
- Have each group try to come up with the best comeback.
- Have everyone vote to determine the best comeback.
 - Be creative, have fun, be prepared.

THE "LINES" & THE COMEBACKS' STORIES !

The situations:

1. "Truth and Dare" is fun why not play it? -
2. It's a Rave. Everybody's going. Ecstasy is an experience. Your parents will just think you are at a dance -
3. Cigarettes help you stay thin and -
4. These math problems are hard. We all looked at each other's answers. Why won't you show us your paper -
5. Sure I had a few beers. I am a really good driver. I've never had an accident -
6. My parents are not home. Come spend the night -
7. X is really worried about getting into high school. X is giving away all his stuff. I am worried about him. This is -
8. I just want to hold you and -
9. Marijuana is nothing like an ordinary cigarette -
10. Nobody believes in abstinence and -

Situations from – Sr. Susanne Bunn MSHS at St Matthias-Lanham, MD

Mary Lee O'Connell, CRNP - 8/04 ©

www.ParentsAndKidsTalking.com